TURN THE TABLES

Just in time for entertaining season, three local design teams create dining room inspiration boards drawn from their favorite china patterns. PRODUCED BY LOREN SAVINI

SILVER LININGS

North Fork Design Co. curated a lush metallic palette inspired by Caskāta's gold-and-platinum "Peony" pattern. A mix of earthy linens and elegant embroidered details create a warm and inviting table, while funky accents like an agate coaster add whimsy.

DISHES "Peony" gold-and-platinum-rimmed dinner and salad plates, Caskāta.

"Amber Satin" natural walnut wide-plank flooring, Shannon & Waterman Custom Wide Plank Flooring. • Gold-rimmed agate coaster, Jonathan Adler. • Kelly Wearstler for Groundworks "Twine Dove" cotton-polyester-weave textile, Lee Jofa. • "Gypsy" braided trim, Kravet. • Highland Court "Beyonce" embroidered linen-blend textile, Duralée. • Canvas Home "Madrid" matte salad fork and teaspoon, Hudson. • "Mizar" foil-printed viscose-velvet textile, "Polka" velvet jacquard textile, Villa Nova "Orto" cotton-rayon textile, Villa Nova "Pinto" cut-velvet textile, "Zephyr" dip-die linen fabric, and Zinc Textile "Bruce" chenille-weave textile, all the Romo Group. • "Rustic" French flax-weave runner, Simon Pearce. •

Sferra "Classico" linen tablecloth, Linens on the Hill. • Ladies & Gentlemen "Cylinder" brass shakers, December Thieves.
